

Year 11 Accounting Clubs and Societies	Strand: The Conceptual Basis of Accounting. Accounting Reports and Systems.
---	--

Key Competencies	The Learning Context
Relating to others. Participating and contributing. Using language, symbols and text.	In small groups: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify local organisations, clubs or marae that might be receptive to students helping with financial management. (Use student ideas.) • Students to make contact with the organisation to arrange an appointment with key financial management personal. • Students to plan and chair a meeting which addresses accounting issues such as decision-making within the organisation, how values affect income generating decisions, how values affect spending decisions of the organisation and any other issued that students deem to be important. • Prepare a report and present to the class using the format set out required by the appropriate Achievement or Unit Standard. • Present the report to the actual organisation with suggestions and recommendations.
Enterprising Attributes
Effective communication. Decision making. Problem Solving. Valuing cultural and ethnic diversity.
Content	Assessment Ideas
Preparing financial reports for clubs and societies. Assisting in decision-making for clubs and societies.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Presenting accounting information. • Report writing. • Analysis of financial information (both process and accuracy).